Villa Louis

(VILL-uh LOO-ee)

The home of the Dousman family from 1871-1913. Mr. and Mrs. Louis and Nina Dousman lived here with their five children: Violet, Virginia, Nina, Louis, and Judith.
Acme Royal Stove

In the Victorian Era, many women worked as cooks who made food for wealthy families like the Dousmans. The cooks worked on woodstoves like this one, making six meals every day—three for the family and three more for their servants.
